

Northpoint Ambassador Award

The Ambassador Award is given to a Northpoint Homeschool Academy student who chooses to enter an essay based on the award criteria and complete Scripture memorization of 1 Timothy 4:12-13. There will be two awards given: one for a student in middle school (grades 7-8) and one for a student in high school. The award is $250. Paul in 2 Corinthians 5:19-20 is explaining to the Corinthians that because of God's work through Christ to reconcile the world to Himself, any person who is a believer is an ambassador for Christ, and that God uses us on earth to make His appeal to the world. Christians have much opportunity to influence the world for Christ and the Gospel. The NP Ambassador Award seeks to recognize students who understand this important part of being a Christian in society.

How to enter: Read the assigned book and submit a paper answering the essay prompt. Essays should be turned into the office of Northpoint Homeschool Academy by Feb. 1st, 2024. Students can recite the memory verse to administrative staff any school day between Feb. 1st -8th.
